President Grant

[illegible]

In the great re[illegible] the [illegible] Atlantic Ocean Ulysses Grant the first [illegible] general who [illegible] the [illegible] to rebellious Southern States on the field of battle has just been chosen President [illegible] and [illegible] saved the North American Union from the dissolution [illegible] with [illegible] four years civil war carried on with unexampled fury [illegible] of Washington [illegible] The country [illegible] thanks to its brave [illegible] him as his sole right the [illegible] the greatest [illegible] the world

The significance of General Grant's [illegible] however does not consist in [illegible] successful field marshal has been [illegible] his own fellow citizens [illegible] the pages of history [illegible] dictator [illegible] the people [illegible] but we find [illegible] significant the fact that owing to the healthy natural [illegible] of the American people and the strong innate qualities of the Anglo Saxon race, the idea of a future Caesar never occurs and no serious politician holds it possible that Ulysses Grant could some day, by a sudden coup d'etat put into his pocket the constitution which he had sworn to protect

Regarded, however on all sides the choice of General Grant has a meaning which stretches far beyond the limits of the American Union. It represents the contest and triumph of that idea for which the Republican party of the Northern States has pledged its last dollar and its last man. Victorious on the field of battle this party was nevertheless on the very verge of being sold and betrayed to the democracy by President Johnson the unworthy successor of Abraham Lincoln who fell a victim of assassination. The democracy meanwhile raised its head again in the Southern States bolder and more insolent than ever

Johnson wished to see the South reconstructed but this wish when carefully examined was found to be nothing else than a weak compromise a flattering of the evil passions of the defunct slave master a striving after measures which would have restored the negroes to their old slavery. Moreover Johnson wished to injure the credit of the country to redeem the coupons of certain bonds no longer with gold but with worthless paper. In a word the President again allied himself with the interests of the Southern Democracy and with the idea of States bankruptcy

A cry of indignation was at once raised against the President by the Republican party. It prepared itself for the contest of the ballot box nominated the most popular man in the United States Gen Grant and strengthened itself from the very ranks of its opponents who nominated as opposition candidate—not Andrew Johnson whom from his previous course, they distrusted—but Horatio Seymour

The heated political campaign is ended, and decided in favor of the progress and humane ideas of the present century. Ulysses Grant who will on the 4th of March 1869 enter the White House at Washington for four years will tolerate no slave under the starry banner of the Union will beat down all attempts at revolt with an iron hand will make the credit of the country firm and will hold himself neutral in all European quarrels and disturbances. He will not indeed give up the Monroe doctrine, but will keep watch with open eyes that no European power shall establish a foothold on the American continent. America for Americans is and will remain the watchword of this American statesman

Magnitude of the Chinese Empire

Perhaps it would be well for the ignorant, narrow minded journalists in this part of the world who are spending so large a part of their time in assailing the Chinese, to consult Caleb Cushing in regard to this race of people. This eminent Democrat is said to be the best living authority on Chinese affairs, and the New York Times thus epitomizes a recent discourse of his on the subject

He tells us that China contains single provinces each of which—in population wealth civilization, education and all else that gives power and consideration to a State—is superior to England France Prussia or any other of the first class Powers of Europe—that the Empire has 500 000 000 inhabitants—more than all Europe combined that this inconceivably vast population is governed by the brightest and strongest intellects of the land upon a system which was old thousands of years before the oldest Governments of Europe began to exist,—that, having thrown off the feudal system about the time it was fastened upon Europe they are governed not by a privileged and hereditary class as is England nor by the leaders of the successful political party as [illegible] his Republic but by a system based exclusively on literary merit in which after a series of exhaustive literary competitive examinations the most learned are appointed to govern those only less learned than themselves, who in their turn govern the class next below and so on down to the least learned of all —that education is universal, even more generally diffused than with us there being absolutely no class of people who cannot read and write —that the great body of the Chinese are intelligent industrious apt to learn anything and everything frugal pre-eminently patriotic and more profoundly and strongly attached perhaps than the people of any other nation in the world to their own laws and institutions — that China was a great nation ages before what we call the ancient nations of Greece and Rome had been founded and has remained a great nation while its earlier contemporaries Egypt and Assyria, are only known imperfectly in the most ancient of the earliest records of our race —and that at this day the most enterprising merchants and the wealthiest men in the world are to be found—not in New York or in London or in any European city but in the seaports and great cities of China"

On Sunday I was walking in the neighborhood of Gen Grant's house when I saw Mrs Major Williams (the Mrs [illegible] A Douglas) exchange greetings with [illegible] and descend at her gate accompanied by her husband. [illegible] the house that Mr Douglas presented to his wife before his marriage [illegible] a hill [illegible] by Gen Grant's subsequent and present residence, and in the grading of the streets there about this house with its extensive walled garden and lawn was left suspended in the air, so that it is now one of the most imposing dwellings in the city and is named appropriately Douglas Hall. Major Williams since his marriage to the widow Douglas has nearly doubled the size of this building raised a French roof upon it and capped its flight of stone stairs with a pair of [illegible] carved lions. THE BETTING.—The Chicago Tribune says

The betting Republicans are generally in luck. There were a large number of bets as to whether any Republican State would give Grant as large a majority as Kentucky would give Seymour. Massachusetts gives Grant [illegible] Kentucky gives Seymour 76 [illegible] There were many bets [illegible] majority in Indiana fifty thousand in Illinois and fifty thousand in Ohio. All these the Republicans won. Many bets were made against [illegible] majority for Seymour in New York [illegible] [illegible] of Massachusetts, Ohio, Illinois and Iowa would give a larger aggregate majority than Seymour's aggregate majority in all the States he carried. These bets the Republicans win by about four thousand

Book Publishing in Hartford

[illegible]

The Hartford [illegible] has the following interesting account of the book publishing business of that city

Before the war something was done here in the subscription business but nothing to speak of compared to the enormous sales which have taken place since. At least [illegible] agents are employed by our publishing houses during the busy seasons. In this article we propose to give a general review of what has been done what is doing now and what the prospects are for a continuation of the business. The first work that started here was Headley's History of the Rebellion by Hurlbut Williams & Co [illegible] about 140 [illegible] volumes and single volumes [illegible] Before the sale was completed A M Hurlbut senior partner retired from the firm out of which grew the American Publishing Company which [illegible] to this work has sold about 100 000 volumes of Richardson's Field Dungeon and Escape 80 000 "West of the Mississippi" by the same author 26 000 of the "Life of Grant" by the same and sales of these are still progressing. Of the Bible History, 20,000 copies have been sold. The company are now issuing two children's books, "Pebbles and Pearls," and "Fireside Fancies" especially adapted for the holidays. The Life of Grant is having a specialty a large sale. It is to be written up to his election to make it a permanent work such as it was designed to be. The "Great Metropolis" presenting scenes of New York Life, by Junius Henry Browne is now in press and agents have just got to work. Mark Twain's new book, "New Pilgrim's Progress," will be issued about the middle of next March. It was the intention to get it out this fall but in order to more profusely illustrate it delay was decided upon

When Hurlbut retired from the firm above named he became silent partner in the firm of W S Williams & Co publishers of the celebrated "Nurse and Spy" book the sales of which reached the enormous number of 1 5,000 copies. He then became and is now interested in the Hartford Publishing Company whose recent books have been as follows "Anecdotes and Incidents of the War" by Frazier Kirkland 40,000 copies. Professor Stowe's History of the Bible 47 000 copies and still selling rapidly. Mrs Stowe's "Men of Our Times" 30 000 copies since June and still having large monthly sales. The company has been in existence but little over two years and has by its class of books been specially commended to public favor. Two new books are now preparing but the time for announcing them has not yet arrived. It will do to say, however that they are of a superior class and will undoubtedly meet with a very large sale

O D Case & Co published Horace Greeley's "History of the Great Conflict" of which 225 000 copies have been sold. Greeley, in his Ledger papers referred to the fact that the sale of his second volume was very much damaged by his signing the bail bond of Jeff Davis. The greater portion of the number sold as above was the first volume, but the demand still continues for the history and most of those people who allowed their prejudices to spite the book will probably in time be very glad to have the work complete. Case & Co also issued 34 000 of Browne's "Four Years in Secessia," and have now in press a "Year Book and Register" for 1869 which will be a very valuable work and more complete than any similar publication ever issued. It will contain an astronomical department very full, giving a concise account of all important eras in the world—the Jewish Mahommedan and other important calendars tables of the solar system important stars tides, etc. eclipses for 1869 illustrated, very full and important monthly tables and ephemeras. Latitude and longitude of principal places etc together with a National Register, giving an account of each department of the Government, the powers and duties of the principal officers full list of Presidents and all the Governors of the States a complete list of Congress from the start, election returns by counties, all over the Union since 1836, the most complete ever published. The editorial charge of the work is in the hands of Professor David L Camp

S S Scranton & Co have now in press a work of great value, which will be announced in a short time. The enterprise of this firm is a sufficient guaranty that a public want will be met when the book appears. Scranton & Co have already published 60 000 "Women of the War" 60 000 "Dictionary of the Bible" 12,000 "Illustrated Bible (large), 15 000 "Deming's Life of Grant," and 8 000 of Dr Scudder's History of Methodism. These sales are still going on

J B Burr & Co started about eighteen months ago with the "Holy Land" of which they sold 25 000 copies. Then came The Dictionary of the Bible 50 000 copies, and "Sunshine and Shadow" by Matthew Hale Smith is going with a great rush. In four weeks since the sale started, about 25 000 copies have been disposed of. Capt Parker agent for this city has sold in Hartford alone 500 copies and agents elsewhere have met with great success

Thomas Belknap is now publishing two works by B J Lossing—the History of the United States and the History of the Civil War. The third volume of the latter has just appeared. He is also issuing Lanman's Dictionary of Congress which will have a large sale

L Stebbins had two books in press when the war broke out— Eighty Years' Progress of the United States and British North America which were temporarily laid by, and Kettell's History of the Rebellion was taken up and 125 000 copies sold. Then came Life and Death in Rebel Prisons by Robert H Kellogg of the Sixteenth Connecticut Regiment, and this had a sale of 95,000 copies. "The South" by J T. Trowbridge and one or two other books, fill out Stebbins catalogue. He has now in preparation a beautiful engraving a description of which will appear at the proper time that will probably sell rapidly. It is one of Darley's drawings, and is the largest engraving ever put on steel in this country. The cost of getting it up will exceed $10 000

A S Hale & Co first published the Neapolitan Conceits and are now selling Parton's People's Book of Biography which is meeting with a good sale

S M Betts & Co have issued the Philosophy of Housekeeping by Mr and Mrs Joseph B Lyman and Lennox's Women of the Age. These have been out only a few months and are selling well

In the following table is given the names of some of the books sold the number of copies disposed of and the average price per volume which presents in concise shape an estimate of the amount of publishing business done in Hartford during the past eight years. A few of the books sold are omitted because no fair estimate could be obtained

A new publishing house is to start before the close of the present month under the name of J Kellogg & Co [illegible] the first book published will be "New York [illegible]"

Brougham's New York Theatre will be opened at [illegible] It will seat 1 800 persons [illegible] Large mirrors will cover the walls to reflect the audience and apparently increase the dimensions of the house. All of the scenery will be raised and lowered. The fifteen dressing rooms will be underneath the stage

Col Shaw's Monument

If we were asked to name the four names which are likely to be longest remembered in connection with the late civil war we should name Grant Sherman Sheridan and Colonel Robert G Shaw. Final history shows that it is not the names of the great generals only that survive, but that there is a certain element of moral picturesqueness if we may so call it which may give a very permanent place to even a subordinate figure. It is in this way Henri La Rochejaquelin, who was killed at twenty two and was but the hero of an obscure province has yet a securer place in history than most of the generals of the French Revolution

There is nothing to indicate that Robert Shaw would have won anything like this peculiar fame had he lived to see the war end. A brave and [illegible] young officer he was yet in these respects only the equal of thousands. He was not the first to drill or discipline colored troops nor lead them into action. They had fought, and fought well both alone and in company with white troops in South Carolina in Florida, and in Louisiana—before he had recruited a man. With the aid of a powerful State organization behind him, it was incomparably [illegible] to [illegible] the 54th Massachusetts than the colored regiments which had preceded. Noble and beautiful as the self devotion shown by [illegible] in identifying himself with the colored troops, it was no greater than that shown by many others, and was not to be compared, for instance, with that shown by Gen Saxton. The [illegible] lay in the circumstances of his death

It was undoubtedly the most dramatic point in the whole war. Shaw's youth, his personal appearance the very contrast between his [illegible] head and those of his dusky soldiers, his ready acceptance of the responsibility, his assuring his commander that he would take care of the flag, all heightened the picture. The only thing that could increase the dramatic perfection was the order finally given by General Haygood to "bury him with his niggers" unless we add the subsequent refusal of Colonel Shaw's father to have his son's remains disinterred

Soon after Colonel Shaw's death, a subscription was set on foot by Gen Saxton among the colored regiments in the department, with the [illegible] of erecting a monument on the very spot where the young hero fell. Until the close of the war this could not, of course, be done. It then appeared that the Government did not [illegible] to hold Fort Wagner permanently; and that there would of course be no security for the monument except on national soil. Moreover, the sea was constantly encroaching on the little sand bar [illegible] Morris Island and part of Fort Wagner was already threatened. In doubt how best to [illegible] the purposes of the subscription, General Saxton decided to transfer the responsibility of the [illegible] to a board of trustees of his own [illegible] General Saxton General Hallowell, Colonel Higginson Captain E W Hooper and Geo W Curtis Esq the brother in law of Colonel Shaw.

These gentlemen [illegible] the trust, and [illegible] full consultation decided to appropriate the [illegible] of the fund to the purchase of land for a [illegible] house in Charleston to be [illegible] by the [illegible] tions of others, under the [illegible] of Mr. [illegible] ben Tomlinson State Superintendent of Education in South Carolina under the Freedmen's Bureau. The whole accrued fund [illegible] this time to $3,579 33, the principal [illegible] 064 90

Of this amount $2 700 has been paid out. The land has been purchased, and a fine building erected, which is called the "[illegible] Free School," and the title to which is vested in the five trustees already named. It is occupied by a flourishing school of nearly five hundred scholars, under the charge of Mr. Arthur Sumner and [illegible] assistants, all [illegible] by the New England Branch of the Freedmen's Union Commission"

It would certainly have [illegible] if the memorial of Shaw could have [illegible] on the lonely island where he fell. Though seen by few it would have hallowed the spot still [illegible] with all chivalrous [illegible] But the race for whom he gave his life have made more [illegible] and as generation after generation grow up to be taught in the "Shaw Free School," [illegible] will be a yet more enduring memorial, and that spot will be as much imbued with his [illegible] are the shifting sands of Fort Wagner.—[illegible] dent

Minority Presidents [illegible]

([illegible])

The London Times, in [illegible] on the result of our election, spoke of Grant's majority of less than a half a million in a [illegible] of over five million votes, and [illegible] continued strength and [illegible] of the Democratic party. The Democrats themselves are salving their wounds with the same view of the case and some of the most ardent and impervious to facts even claim that Grant is a minority President. A little [illegible] acquaintance with our political history would throw a very different light upon the subject, and would dissipate that vague but persistent delusion that the Democratic party is [illegible] ble. The facts show that it [illegible] been a majority party itself since Jackson's time, but has always succeeded purely by party drill and through the divisions of its opponents. Since Jackson none of its Presidents have received a majority of the popular vote, and in fact, the only Presidents who have been thus chosen are Harrison, Lincoln (in 1864) and Grant, even Taylor having a plurality of only about a hundred thousand and being in a minority of over two hundred thousand. Van Buren in 1836 and Polk in 1844 would both have failed of election had the votes for the third candidates (White and Birney) been cast for their principal competitors, Harrison and Clay) Polk had a majority over Clay of less than 40,000, and that was largely due to such frauds as Slidell's in the Plaquemine Parish, while Birney's vote (62 [illegible]) was more than enough to throw Polk in a minority of the whole. Buchanan [illegible] 1856 was in a minority of nearly 400,000; for the third candidate, Fillmore, received 874,[illegible] votes. Indeed, Buchanan received nearly fifty thousand less votes than Lincoln in 1860 and was just as much a minority President although his opponents did not deem that a reason for rejecting his election. And, in view of these facts Democrats should be the last men to talk about rebelling against a minority President or to plume themselves upon being a majority party. The Fillmore men in 1860 had as much justification for secession in 1856 as the Breckenridge clique for disturbing the peace of the nation in 1860; for throwing out the strictly Union vote for Bell the votes cast for the other three candidates in those two years are strikingly alike, as follows 1856 Buchanan 1 838 229 Fremont 1 342 164 Fillmore 874 625; 1860 Lincoln, 1 866 452 Douglas 1 375 157 Breckenridge 847 953

Thus it appears that the Democracy has really been a minority since Jackson's time, although they have generally succeeded in keeping in power by trickery and by the failure of their opponents to unite against them keeping held together themselves by the cohesive power of public plunder. If they fail to keep up a supply of that powerful cement what will prevent them from falling to pieces. They are in no better condition than the Whig party which might have won in 1836 by sufficient effort, which did win in 1840 and in 1848 and was cheated out of victory in 1844. The Democratic party is in a greater minority now than the Whig party in 1852 when Pierce only beat Scott by 200 000 votes. Yet the Whig party gave up the ghost in such a showing as that which proves that the relative numbers of a minority party is no criterion of its real strength and no promise of its future continuance

WEDNESDAY MORNING, ... 1868

A Money Moses

... it was a mistake to suppose that Andrew Johnson had quit the Moses business ... it was ... that he ... His Israelites. The force of this ... has been singularly manifest ... which the Herald has taken. That paper is in ecstasies over A. J. ... and tells its readers that ... "whom but a few days ago it abused and despised as a brick ... that he ... Moses and that there has been no statesman since Andrew Jackson who has had a large a share of pluck as he possesses. It joyfully accepts him as "our Moses to lead us out of the Egypt of debt into the Canaan of solvency." ...

"There were hundreds of thousands of Democrats," says this new admirer of Johnson, "who accepted Pendleton's theory ... because it fully met their views ... it was nearest to them of any that had been advanced. They have been waiting impatiently for him or some other statesman to come forward to the very front and say 'We will stop your interest and apply your revenue henceforward to liquidate the principal.' This, Johnson has said." Hence Pendleton is supplanted. Johnson who was going to be the Moses of the colored race has changed his Israelites and is now accepted as the Moses of the Democracy.

But it remains to be seen whether the whole party will join the Herald in following their new found Moses, whether they will reject Pendleton whom they have professed to idolize and accept Johnson as their leader—the man who was a traitor to his State, who played the part of a military tyrant in Tennessee, who hung Mrs Surratt and that good Democrat, Wirz and who hadn't the pluck to maintain the Constitution by dispersing the Rump Congress with the bayonet. We are inclined to think that there are some who will not be very enthusiastic in condemning Pendleton and following the banner of the new "money Moses." We fear Long Tom and Santiam Forks can't be brought into the scheme.

It is truly edifying to be told that Pendleton's theory, base and dishonest as it is, is yet not base and dishonest enough to suit the demands of his party. They accepted it for a time as the best, or rather as the worst that they could do, but they were "waiting impatiently" for some one to step forward with a still more infamous proposition. Johnson was their man. There was a show or pretense of legality in Pendleton's theory but there is none whatever in Johnson's. The Herald makes a boast of this and says:

"From this time henceforth we shall not confine our talk about the wordings of the law but we will raise to a higher plane. This plane is that of flat repudiation—repudiation in ... and fact of the contract between the public creditor and the Government. It is admitted that this new theory is violative of the contract, and it is therefore preferred to Pendleton's, which claims to have the letter of the law in its favor." Our neighbor is getting upon solid "Democratic" ground at last. But we have a word of caution for him. Does he remember the fate of the colored race who trusted to Johnson as their Moses? Has he forgotten that Moses led them into inexplicable difficulties and then deserted them? Such will be the fate of those who follow the "money Moses" whom the Herald is now worshipping.

DODGING.—The Indian Superintendent's organ attempts to dodge the remarks we have made on the "mercenary brigade." The Superintendent is said to be absent from home and the boys whom he left in the office don't know what they are talking about and are trying to raise irrelevant issues. We beg that paper not to try to dodge this point viz: That there are fifteen or twenty persons in the State who tried to Copper Johnsonize Oregon, that these persons entered into a coalition early in 1866 for that purpose; that when Johnson broke with Congress and the first news of the rupture was received here these persons telegraphed from Salem to different points in the State to get the names of prominent persons, office-holders and others for the purpose of sending a dispatch to Johnson to assure him of their support; that the Indian Superintendent was a leading actor in this scheme, that he and others of that clique have never given an honest support to the Republican party since that time; that these individuals are now, without an exception, seeking favors at the hands of the party they tried to betray, and that their sole purpose is and has been to enjoy the spoils of office and keep in such a position as will enable them to betray the party in future when they find it to their advantage to do so. This is the point, and as every Republican in Oregon knows it, there is no occasion for the Unionist to try to dodge. We disapproved of the appointment of Bayley because he is one of this clique, and because he voted against the Fourteenth Amendment, and the Unionist has defended him for the same reason. Had these persons kept quiet we would not have said a word about them but as they are all trying to force themselves into official positions or retain the positions they have to the jeopardy of the cause in the future the party should be warned against them. On reading the Unionist's efforts to divert attention from the only point to be considered we are reminded that—

> Vice doth often like the wanton wind
> Blow dust in others' eyes to spread itself

REVENUE SUPERVISORS.—There is talk in Washington of an intention of changing the Internal Revenue law so as to give the Senate the power of confirmation of the Supervisors. When the law was passed there were grave doubts as to the constitutionality of the section taking the appointing power from the President and confining it entirely to the Secretary of the Treasury and Revenue Commissioner. It was urged that all appointments should originate with the President, the source of all executive authority under the Constitution. Since the passage of the act this doubt has strengthened and the working of the section between the cross purposes of McCulloch and Rollins has further directed the attention of Senators and Representatives to the necessity of a change.

GOOD.—On election night at Galena ... a party of Republicans came up to Representative Washburne's quite late in the evening and cheered for Grant and victory. General Grant requested Washburne to go and apologize to the boys for my not appearing, and tell them that I am like Seymour at Milwaukee in 1864. I don't know which way this thing is going. This same thing was what was the matter with our mercenary brigade before the Tenure of Office act passed.

The Indian Service

The bill which passed the House ... weeks ago to transfer the Indian Bureau to the War Department and is now ... to be passed by the Senate at any rate that ... has given rise to ... of such action. General Grant in his annual report earnestly suggests that the transfer be made, and he refers to the reports of Generals Sherman and Sheridan ... which ... the management of the Indians to the War Department, the part of the military ... General Sheridan says:

The present system of dealing with the Indians, I think, is an error. There are too many ... the ... to ... the Indian. The Peace Commission and the Indian Department and the military and the Indians make a balky team. The public treasury is ... the quadrangular management in which the public treasury and the unarmed settlers are the greatest sufferers. There should be only one head in the government of Indians; now they look to the Peace Commission, then to the Indian Department, both of which are expensive institutions with ... any system or adequate machinery to ... the goods their promises. Then the Indians fall back on the military, which is the only reliable resort ... when he becomes pinched from hunger.

I respectfully recommend, in view of what I have seen since I came in command of this Department and from a long experience with Indians heretofore, that the Indian Department be transferred to the War Department and that the Lieutenant General, as the common superior, have sole and entire charge of the Indians; that each department commander, and the officers under him, have the sole and entire charge of the Indians in his department. There will then be no balky team ... an expense in salaries—a just accountability in the disbursement of the Indian appropriations. The machinery necessary to support the army can, with ... additional expense, support the Indians.

SNUBBED.—The Sacramento Bee says the House of Representatives was prompt to chastise the insolence of the Legislative Assembly of Oregon and adds: "After this Oregon will be out in the cold for some time and she ought to be until she learns better manners. The fact is these Cops have no political sense. This Legislative Assembly has done an amount of injury to Oregon which the State will not speedily recover from. Whenever a proposition is made in Congress relative to any measure for the benefit of our State there will be not a few members who will remember the insults which our Legislature has heaped upon that body. When Rev. Joseph Smith brings those hundred and one memorials asking for subsidies for Oregon enterprises into Congress he will have a good time of it. He will be about as influential as if he were the accredited representative of the K. K. K. of New Orleans."

THE BRIGADE'S ORGAN.—The Indian Superintendent's organ, or to speak more accurately the organ which the Indian Superintendent is running in behalf of J. W. Nesmith, tries to take the OREGONIAN to task for an alleged want of fidelity to the Republican party. The OREGONIAN'S record needs no defense. The Republicans of the State will take care of it. As the Unionist said scarcely a word during the Presidential campaign in behalf of Grant and Colfax, and as its present proprietor is a Copper-Johnson who hasn't acted with the party at all for several years, that paper no doubt thinks itself the pink of Republicanism.

PROTESTS.—The Commercial already protests against going into the "Moses business" with the Herald and Andy Johnson. It says: "The nameless editor of the Herald has jumped after the bait which A. Johnson threw out, with the avidity of a hungry pike. No Moses for us, if you please. He tried to part the waters of the Red sea when he got up the Philadelphia Convention humbug. The Herald went in and was near being drowned. The waters closed in just when Pharaoh and his hosts got there. Andy is neither god, prophet or statesman."

IDAHO.—The message of the Governor of this Territory to the Legislative Assembly now in session is a valuable document, full of interesting facts and practical suggestions. The resources and wants of the Territory are discussed at considerable length and in a manner very creditable to the author of the paper. Gov. Ballard has violent political opponents to deal with, and he suggests that there be a mutual avoidance of party strife and political asperities, bearing in mind that the popular voice has said "Let us have peace."

A VERY PROPER PROTEST.—When the President's recent communication to Congress was being read in the Senate, Conness of California moved that the further reading be dispensed with on the ground that it was insulting and untrue. Howe of Wisconsin argued that it was the President's duty to communicate facts and not dishonorable and untrue propositions. These Senators only maintained the dignity of the Senate when they refused to listen to the indecorous language of that paper called by courtesy a President's message.

The OREGONIAN remarks that there are some twenty men in the State that are mercenaries. As that number will include nearly every Federal officeholder in the State, it follows as an unavoidable conclusion, that it demands the decapitation of every one now holding office, and that they must leave the party.—Unionist

Not quite so fast, boys. Your master and two or three more of the officeholders are the chief offenders. Some of the present officeholders are among the best Republicans in the State but the members of the mercenary brigade are in almost every instance, trying to get their places.

POINTED.—An Oregon paper tries to be very severe on somebody or other to whom it alludes as "a man who with the sickening fumes of the still poisoning the air" etc. ... the force of this remark it is only necessary to mention that it is from the paper of a Government official at Salem whose habits are well known to the whole people of Oregon.

QUERY.—The concern at Salem calls the editor of the OREGONIAN a "suckling and fledgling in the Republican party." Perhaps that paper with the experience its proprietor has had can tell us how many times a man must betray his party to become one of the "battle scarred heroes" it talks about.

THEIR STYLE.—One of our Democratic neighbors says: "Hiram Grant ... Phil Sheridan (the husband of ...) ... to make the valley of the Shenandoah so that a crow flying over it would have to carry its own rations." Able argument for the Democratic cause.

The vote of the New England States at the late Presidential election was as follows:

	Grant	Sey.
Connecticut	...	4...	...
Maine	...	4...	...41
Massachusetts	...	...	...
New Hampshire	...35	...	...
Rhode Island	...	...	...415
Vermont	...41	...	...
Total	...	...
Majority for Grant	153 991

In 1864 the majority for Lincoln in the New England States was 120 958.

(DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN)

DATES TO DECEMBER 22

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The House was called to order by Washburne. Van Wyck presented a report from the Committee on Retrenchment, when the House adjourned to January 5th.

In the Senate a few members were present ... were present ... till ... when the ... adjourned to January 5th.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The main wall of the new hospital at ... of the Bennington House ... fell to-day. About fifteen workmen, the most of whom were colored, who were working ... fell to the ground and ... of them were injured but few seriously.

Mr. Seward in reply to an inquiry from a New York firm asking if Government would protect American vessels bound to Haytian ports ... from seizure by the Haytian government, says the Government will not protect vessels attempting to carry on a trade with Haytian ports in violation of any existing blockade ... of the government of the Haytian Republic.

Mr. Trumbull has introduced a bill into the Senate to prevent the repetition of such crimes as the ... of Rebel prisoners at the New Albany jail.

The McGee Murder Case

TORONTO, Dec. 21.—The Court of Queen's Bench to-day refused to grant a new trial to Whalen, the murderer of D'Arcy McGee. The prisoner was remanded until Thursday when he will appeal against the ruling of the Court of Errors and Appeals.

The Cuban Insurrection

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Specials to the evening papers say that Seward has dispatches from Cuba showing that the insurrection cannot last much longer, unless civil war should soon break out in Spain.

Murder Trial

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—The jury in the Young murder case at Indianapolis after being out thirty-six hours failed to agree. Mrs. Clem was immediately arrested for the murder of Jacob Young, the first trial having been for the murder of Mrs. Young. The prosecution has additional evidence which leads them to believe the conviction of Mrs. Clem to be certain on the second trial.

Billiards

The game of billiards for the championship of America between Mr. Goldthwaite and McDavitt, present champion, will come off to-night. Both parties announce the intention, if successful, to surrender the champion cue to the Billiard Congress that the rules may be revised so that the push shot will hereafter be barred. The game for the Illinois State championship was played last night between Rhiens and Vermeullen, the present champion. The latter retained the cue, defeating by 24 points in 1,000. To-morrow night Frawley, champion of Ohio, will play the ex-champion of Illinois the second of the series of match games. The first game was won by Frawley at Cleveland a month ago.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Brooklyn Common Council last night voted to subscribe $300,000 in aid of building a bridge across East River, to be paid when $200,000 have been subscribed by other parties.

The Times says the policy adopted by Sheridan is entirely new, but he has been compelled to adopt it by the miserable failures of the Indian Agents and the Peace Commissioners. He trusts that he will not be obstructed in the execution of his policy by the President or Congress.

A Tribune special says Gen. Grant has ordered General Hancock to go in person to Arkansas and examine the condition of affairs there and report at once to headquarters.

The Herald says there is more anxiety to get on the Pacific Railroad committees than any others.

Further particulars have been developed of stupendous custom house frauds. It appears that goods to the value of over half a million, from time to time, have been invoiced by Gutenan Thomas and others.

Arkansas Ku Klux

MEMPHIS, Dec. 22.—The Avalanche's Little Rock special says that many prominent citizens have fled from the Conway county militia to this city.

Captain Gibbons, commanding the militia at Lewisburg, reports to the Government that an old man named Casey was murdered for his money by his partners Becken & Belty, who burned the store and fled.

Gill & Matthews were burned out because they were Radicals.

The Avalanche's special says: "I think we can conquer the Ku Klux in a short time. Gibbons was a member of the Legislature at the last session and introduced a bill forbidding disfranchised persons to follow any of the professions, to be a mate on steamboats, or to keep stallions." His statements are improbable as to the loss to the conservative citizens by fire being five or six times that of others.

Breckan and Bently fled to save their lives.

General Upham reports from Augusta that a detachment under Captain Taylor drove the insurgents out of Woodruff into Jackson, killing one and capturing prisoners, arms and ammunition. A refugee says that half has not been told of the outrages by the militia.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—It is reported that Prince Metternich has received instructions from Vienna to act in concert with France on the Eastern difficulty. The press represents the war excitement as great in Constantinople as in Athens. The Russian flag had been publicly burnt in the streets of Constantinople.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The full message of President Johnson is received. The Times refers to the President's stubbornness and denounces his repudiation proposition. It approves of the action of the Senate and House in their disposal of the document.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The stock exchange this morning was a scene of the wildest excitement, the cause of which was the announcement of the Treasurer of the New York Central Railroad Company in a card bearing this date that at a meeting of the Directors on the 19th inst. a scrip dividend of 80 per cent. was declared, also a cash dividend of 4 per cent., payable February 20th on old and new scrip. It certifies that the scrip dividend is issued to each stockholder in the form of a certificate signed by the President and Treasurer of the Company. It declares the owner entitled to 80 per cent. on account of stock held by him, and that the same dividends shall hereafter be paid thereon as on declared old capital stock; that certificates may be converted into stock whenever the Company shall be authorized to increase the capital to an amount sufficient for such conversion. This dividend caused astounding surprise not only to a majority of stock operators at the exchange but to many who are supposed to share the confidence of the controlling owners of the road.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—The steamer Golden City sailed for Panama with 247 passengers and $...,969 in treasure.

The Government supervising architect recommends that the present site of the Marine Hospital be appropriated as the site of the new Custom House for this port. In his view, the hospital building is unsafe and undesirable any longer for hospital purposes. The proposition involves the separation of the postoffice from the custom house building.

Joseph ... Pierce, a telegraph operator, was found dead upon the floor of the Stephenson House this morning. He is supposed to have expired in a fit.

John Franklin dropped dead in a house on ... street this morning.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday appropriated $1,000 towards a Christmas dinner for the inmates of the Hospital and Almshouse.

The steamer Great Republic, which sailed from Yokohama November ...th, arrived here this morning.

PUGET SOUND

From the Olympia Transcript.

We learn that four members of a Norwegian family by the name of Hanson that recently came to the Territory and are stopping on the Cowlitz died last week of diphtheria and vaccination. Several other members of the family are dangerously ill with the same disease.

The keepers of the Insane Asylum at Monticello, report that they have nineteen patients, nine more than they received from the former keepers, in July, 1866; that three have become sane and been discharged and one has died while an inmate of the Asylum.

We learn that the work on the woolen mill at Byrd's mill a few miles east of Steilacoom has been stopped for the winter, but that the erection of it will be completed next spring.

The Supreme Court was in session during the first part of the week and on Wednesday adjourned until to-day at 10 o'clock, when the opinions on the several cases will be rendered.

There is an abundance of drift wood in the Sound, proving that the streams generally have been much swollen by the late heavy rains.

The bark Elizabeth Kimball is still in quarantine at Port Townsend with several cases of small pox on board, but all doing well.

Two persons—we did not learn their names—died at Port Gamble during the past week, of small pox. The remaining cases are considered out of danger.

CHARITY.—A large class of people profess ... to be virtuous on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a ... can possess. It is not always by giving ... to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money; for instance. Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel, ... being certain that at that House they can purchase to the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

DIED:

At Umatilla, 17th inst., Adelia, daughter of Rev. A. W. and A. Sweeney, aged 15 yrs. 3 mos.

Early called by her Father in Heaven yet not unprepared, as her short life testified. Never disobeying her parents in a single instance, ever correct in habits of life, pious, gentle and obliging, loved and valued by her many friends for traits of character which promised to bloom into the perfect flower of Christian womanhood. God saw fit to gather the bud before its maturity, and we bow to His decree, comforted by the thought that Heaven is now her home, and angels her companions.

Affairs Matters Up the Columbia.—The Walla Walla Statesman contains a report of a railroad meeting at that town, on last Saturday week, which was addressed by Rev. H. K. Hines. After the conclusion of Mr. Hines' address, a committee of five was appointed, consisting of Newell, Baker, Sharpstein, Kyger and Day, to consider upon the propositions submitted in the address and report to an adjourned meeting. Another committee was appointed to collect statistics of Walla Walla county and forward them to Mr. Hines at Washington City ...... We clip the following items from the Statesman: For over a week it has rained more or less, and as a result our streets are ankle deep in mud. ...... We learn that within the last month a great deal of fatality has prevailed among the hogs in this Valley. One settler tells us that he has lost sixty head. The disease is an affection of the throat, similar to the quinsey ...... The steamer Mary Moody, on Pend de Oreille lake, has been laid up for the season. Capt. Julian, her commander, is now in town, and reports business on the lake as very dull. ...... All other parties having failed, the Oregon Steam Navigation Company have taken hold of the telegraph enterprise and propose to put the line up without delay. The greater part of the poles are already secured, and with the opening of spring the Company expect to extend the line to Walla Walla, and thence to Boise City. ...... The members of the Washington Engine Company have determined to dispose of their hand machine and purchase a steam engine in its place...... For the purpose of raising the means to pay for their new engine the Firemen will give a New Year's Ball, the proceeds of which will be applied to that purpose. Some of the members of the company have pledged themselves to pay $100 each toward getting a fire engine, and it is not doubted that property holders—not members—will contribute with equal liberality. The engine is estimated to cost not to exceed Bridge.—We are informed that the City Attorney, to whom was referred the matter of the power of the city under the charter, to build a bridge across the creek, has given an opinion that the city cannot do it. Then the city should take down the rickety old bridge crossing the creek, and obviate the liability of damages to somebody after awhile, for falling through it. The old bridge is within the city limits and is a part of B street, and should anybody go through and sue the city for damages, the opinion of the Attorney might not be sufficient bar to damages. If the city cannot legally make an outlay for a new bridge, the county certainly ought to do it. If the county commissioners say that there is no county road there, let one be laid out. The private enterprise of building a bridge on that portion of B street, undertaken by Messrs. Jeffries and others, does not seem to have met with success, as only about $850 has been subscribed and the sum required is about $1,500.

Arrival of the Zephyr.—The backentine Zephyr, Capt. Trask, arrived Monday night, in tow from the mouth of the river, by the steamer Geo. S. Wright. She made an extraordinary run from Point Reyes to the bar, making it inside of forty-eight hours. She sailed from San Francisco on the 12th; arrived off the bar on the 14th; stood off and on till the 18th, crossed bar and reached Astoria last Friday, where she was detained till Monday morning. The following is her list of consignees, with number of packages to each: Corbett & Macleay, ; Smith, 50; Hurgren & Shindler, 90; John Johnson & Co., 80; Allen & Lewis, 1,446; Hawley, Dodd & Co., 201; Diamond K, 30; Merrill & Co., 1,706.

To the Public.—At the request of a Catholic clergyman we publish the following, though we had an item Sunday morning concerning the same impostor: "There is a man in town begging money on false pretences. He has deceived many in the Eastern States for the last four years by his wearing the clerical collar and calling himself a Reverend gentleman, when he is no clergyman, in order to deceive the better, in travelling, or begging. It is time to stop such an impostor. He will probably go from Oregon to the East via Dalles, Umatilla, Walla Walla. Papers please copy. Friends, look out, beware of the wolf in the clothing of a sheep.
Portland, Oregon, December 21, 1868
ONE KNOWING WELL."

Mandamus.—In the case of J. W. Whally vs. J. C. Carson, a writ for mandamus to compel defendant, a Justice of the Peace, to furnish a transcript of certain records, Judge Upton decided that the writ should issue. The writ set out a demand for certified copies of certain records of the Justice Court, tender of fees to the Justice, and refusal by him thereto ...... To this a demurrer was interposed. His Honor, in overruling the demurrer, decided that a Justice of the Peace is bound, on tender of fees, to give for any citizen of this State, certified copies of his files or records.

—The dispatches from Victoria state that the Continental arrived at Esquimalt, she had on board a case of small pox, and the authorities compelled her to go into quarantine. The ship is now on her way to Portland with the sick man on board. Will our authorities see that the city be not exposed to the disease by the landing of the ship at the wharf ...... Prompt action is required. In the matter of small pox, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Turkeys.—The price of "fat turkeys" is encouraging the necessity of having one in the family. At such a time, when everybody wants the good old-fashioned sort, everybody ought to buy a feast without being compelled to buy it a week afterward. Only think of four dollars for a "fat turkey" which you could put in your hat! If the fault is with the turkeys, then off with their heads." If it be with the dealers, say, "long live the turkeys!"

Guards' Ball.—We learn that the prospects for the ball at the Washington Guard's Armory, Christmas eve, are flattering. Remember that tickets may be had of any one of the Invitation Committee, who are authorized to dispose of them. In issuing ...... have doubtless been overlooked whom the committee will be glad to have present. In all such cases it will only be necessary to procure an admission

Salem Items.—We learn from the Unionist that the ...... on Monday night, played "The Man with the Iron Mask," to a good audience, eliciting warm applause. Last night, they played "Caste."......The ...... of Salem, will hold a festival at Stewart's building......The firemen of Salem are making preparations for a Christmas......On Monday, Dr. Carpenter removed a tumor from a boy's neck, before the class of the Wallamet University.

Taxes.—Judge McCoy informs us that the greater part of the ...... tax has been paid, but the entire tax is not yet paid, and he desires that all who wish to pay will call at his office and settle. He says that if he has to levy on property, he will 'go after' the delinquents without respect to persons, age, sex or Found Dead.—A man fell down in a fit, yesterday, in a shop on Alder street, and being alone came near dying before he was discovered. When found he was nearly chilled to death, and was recovered by the administration of strong stimulants and rubbing for more than half an hour.

—Capt. Trask, of the bark Zephyr, informs us that he will load his vessel with produce for San Pedro, under charter. Hereafter, it is expected, she will run direct from this port to San Pedro; in case of failure, will run between this city and other ports.

For San Francisco.—The bark Occident which sailed on Monday, took for San Francisco about ...... flour, 160 tons salmon, pork and beef, and ...... She will take on a deck load of lumber at the Columbia river mills—probably at Westport.

Continental.—A telegraphic dispatch from Victoria announces that the steamship Continental left for Portland at twelve o'clock Monday night, and passed ...... at six o'clock A. M. yesterday.

Late last evening, and after the items about the Continental were in type, we received the following from Victoria: "The Continental is still at ...... won't leave till morning."

...... of cock fighting is still in vogue in this city. Christmas night has been selected as the time for a carnival of this sort, at a certain saloon. A ...... is wanted.

Information Wanted.—Information is wanted of Elias Walker, who was at Walla Walla in the early part of May, 1868. His relatives, living in Iowa, wish to know what has become of him.

Affliction.—The Commercial is in deep affliction over the distressing poverty of some of the Coleman ...... We feel really sorry for both.

—The U. S. Circuit Court convened yesterday, and, without transacting any business of importance, adjourned without day.

A considerable part of the cargo of the bark ...... consisted of salt—an article which has of late been scarce in this market.

New and Pleasing.—Those new and beautiful Parlor Suites, now so fashionable at the East, can be seen at Hurgren & Shindler's. Also, many rare ...... ornament and use, for the parlor and the Many side bits are being made at the Plantation Bitters by a score or two of disinterested friends, endeavoring to imitate or counterfeit them. It is no use. The people won't be imposed upon. ...... Bitters are increasing in use and popularity. They are in the same sized bottle, and made the same as at first. They make the weak strong, the ...... brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The recipe and full circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, Merchants and persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, liver complaint, etc., will find speedy and permanent relief in these Bitters. One day while promenading the streets of the town,

With a very poor chapeau surmounting my crown,

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING
BUDGET!
McCORMICK'S
BOOK STORE!
WHERE MY
HEAD-QUARTERS!
HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
For the past Seven Years.
AND WHERE
I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL
DURING THE COMING FESTIVAL!
THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE
The Christmas and New Year's HOLIDAYS!
I herewith issue my Annual PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children! once more I appear,
And wish you good Christmas, and Happy New Year!
I've brought you glad tidings—I've opened once more
My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store!
I've spread out my treasures, so give me a call
And view the nice GIFTS I've procured for you all.
My Presents this year were conveyed to the town,
By Mercer's new clipper, the swift Sallie Brown.
The stock's most complete! The assortment comprises
Curiosities rare, of all shapes and all sizes!
I've Dollies that talk—I've babies that dance,
(Some, very handsome, I purchased in France.)
I've Fish that can swim—I've Roosters who strive
To crow so like nature, you'd think they're alive!
I've Guns, and I've Cannon—I've neat Savings Banks,
And Soldiers that look very neat when in ranks!
I've Puzzles, and Pistols. Then Christmas to keep,
I've Candles, Reflectors, and Brackets—a heap!
I've beautiful Baskets, (a nice gift for Ma,)
And handsome Cigar Stands—just suited for Pa!
While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt,
As a beautiful portrait of President Grant!
I've Work Boxes—handsome as ever were made—
With ladies' utensils all nicely arrayed.
I've nice setts of China—I've Vases of Flowers,
And Musical Boxes that play at all hours.
I've Furniture, Villages, Steamboats, and Flocks,
That gay little joker, called Jack-in-the Box!
I've Tables, and Dresses, for China or delf,
I've nice ......, that you play by yourself!
I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight
To make all good children merry at night.
For girls at ...... I've a nice Skipping Rope,
And for family fun I've the new ......
I've Games that ...... and ...... that ......
For Gifts to good ......
In fine, I've got all that each heart could desire,
To name them all over your ...... I'd tire;
But call on me early, or call on me late,
I'll visit your houses all over this State—
In Washington's clime—up in young Idaho—
I'm sure to find children wherever I go;
I've travelled for years—you all must remember
I'll be Sixty-nine at the end of December.
My hair is all white, and my body doth tend
To the latest attraction—the new Grecian bend!
On Christmas-Eve night, as in bed you all sleep,
With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep;
I'll lay out my Presents, but oh! 'twill be shocking,
Should I find a hole in any one's stocking!
So, for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey,
Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money!
Nice Presents or Gifts—any kind you require,
You'll find at the "FRANKLIN"—(the number enquire.)
On FRONT STREET, Near Alder—105,
In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,
Don't ask goods at cost, for you'll find, if you try,
That goods sold "at cost" always cost very high!
But to purchasers all, this maxim I'd give:
Live well yourself, and thus let others live!

(L. S.) Given at my Palace, in Wonderland, this 7th day of the Twelfth month, being the second year of the reign of the third George, in the land of Webfoot.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the Interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

WOLFE'S
CELEBRATED
AROMATIC
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities, manufactured by myself, exclusively, at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.
In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, its effects are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable.
It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, who during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physicians, endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.
It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated ......, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.
As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS
Will be found absolutely infallible, while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.
It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of the signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart, or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in
Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is sold by all Grocers and Apothecaries.
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is recommended by all the Medical Faculty.
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is imitated and counterfeited, and purchasers will have to use caution in purchasing.
WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,
Imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, expressly for medicinal and private use.
WHAT DO YOU DRINK?
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps.
It checks the Disarrangement of the Bowels.

The Bottom of the Ocean

BY PROFESSOR [illegible]

In 18[illegible] Lieutenant Br[illegible]ke [illegible] from the bottom of the North Atlantic [illegible] between Newfoundland and the Azores at a depth of more than ten thousand [illegible] by the help of his [illegible] apparatus. The specimens were sent for examination to Ehrenberg of Berlin and to Bailey of West Point, and those able microscopists found that this deep sea mud was almost entirely composed of the skeletons of living organisms the great proportions of these being just like the Globigerinae already known to occur in the chalk.

Thus far the work had been carried on simply in the interests of science but Lieutenant Brooke's method of sounding acquired a high commercial value when the enterprise of laying down the telegraph cable between this country and the United States was undertaken. For it became a matter of immense importance to know not only the depth of the sea over the whole line along which the cable was to be laid, but the exact nature of the bottom so as to guard against chances of cutting or fraying the strands of that costly rope. The Admiralty consequently ordered Captain Dayman, an old friend and shipmate of mine, to ascertain the depth over the whole line of the cable and bring back specimens of the bottom. In former days such a command as this might have sounded very much like one of the impossible things which the young prince in the fairy tales is ordered to do before he can obtain the hand of the princess. However, in the months of June and July, 1857, my friend performed the task assigned to him with great precision without, so far as I know, having met with any reward of the kind. The specimens of Atlantic mud which he procured were sent to me to be examined and reported upon.

The result of these operations is that we know the contours and nature of the surface soil covered by the North Atlantic for a distance of seventeen hundred miles from east to west, as well as we know that of any part of the dry land.

It is a prodigious plain, one of the widest and most even plains in the world. If the sea were drained off you might drive a wagon all the way from Valentia, on the west coast of Ireland to Trinity Bay, in Newfoundland. And, except upon one sharp incline, about two hundred miles from Valentia, I am not quite sure that it would even be necessary to put the skid on so gentle are the ascents and descents upon that long route. From Valentia the road would be down hill for about two hundred miles to the point at which the bottom is now covered by 1,700 fathoms of sea water. Then would come the central plain, more than one thousand miles wide the inequalities of the surface of which would be hardly perceptible, though the depth of the water upon it varies from 10,000 to 15,000 feet; and there are places in which Mount Blanc might be sunk without showing its peak above water. Beyond this the ascent on the American side commences and gradually [illegible] for about 300 miles, to the Newfoundland shore.

Almost the whole of the bottom of this central plain (which extends many hundred miles in a north and south direction) is covered by a fine mud, which, when brought to the surface, dries into a grayish white friable substance. You can write with this on a blackboard, if you are so inclined, and to the eye it is quite like very soft, grayish chalk. Examined chemically, it proved to be composed almost wholly of carbonate of lime, and if you make a section of it in the same way as that of a piece of chalk was made, and view it with the microscope, it presents innumerable [illegible] embedded in the granular matrix.

This deep sea mud is substantially chalk. I say substantially because there are a good many minor differences, but as these have no bearing upon the question immediately before us which is the nature of the globigerinae of the chalk—it is unnecessary to speak of them.

The Lynchburg Virginian, a veteran in the Democratic cause, says: "What shall we do now? Our advice would be to disband the Democratic party at once, for it is pretty effectually killed off, and organize a new conservative party to support Grant, if his course shall justify it. In this way the Radical leaders may be sloughed off from the administration, and a great conservative party built up that will control the destinies of the country."

The inventor of the hot air engine, Captain Ericsson, has recently written a letter to one of the Swedish Universities in which he describes a wonderful apparatus for condensing the rays of the sun which are to be utilized in the production of motive power. One of the machines which the inventor has constructed is worked by steam which is [illegible] by the condensed rays of the sun.

The Richmond Dispatch says that the speaking of Mr Seymour "was a freak of despair" and had no more influence upon the result than does the beating of a tom-tom over the bed of a dying Indian."

The Mobile Tribune proposes to make the Congress of the United States "as ridiculous and contemptible as possible, by electing a [illegible] from Mobile. We suppose Congress can stand it if Mobile can.

Cleveland's population is 85,288 and value $41,[illegible]6,500.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon. In the [illegible] of Julius M G Kallich, Bankrupt. PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to every thing of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Western affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources
